

FIVE NIGHTS TOWARD FREEDOM

MLK Commemorative Film Series

Join the MSU Libraries and WKAR on virtual screenings and conversations featuring films focusing on public health, bringing together leading MSU experts and community members to watch and discuss a range of historic and contemporary films. Check the information below for each of the films and to register. These events are cosponsored by Division of Public Health/College of Human Medicine, James Madison College and Department of African American and African Studies.
